Talk 1

You are negotiating with a bus company to transport your employees from the office to a resort for a team-building retreat. The sales rep (your teacher) has said that the price is “including everything.” Confirm that there will be no taxes or highway charges added to the bill.

Talk 2

You have reached an agreement with a representative of a window-cleaning company (your teacher). You have agreed on the following terms.

- First-floor windows : cleaned weekly
- Other windows : cleaned monthly
- Cost : $350 per month
- Payment : by the 20th of each month

In your meeting with the representative, summarize the agreement.

Talk 3

You run an interior design company and are in a meeting with a customer (your teacher). You have agreed to design the customer’s new office for a price of €40,000. Your customer will summarize the agreement, but misses an important detail: the price does not include a piece of artwork that will be purchased for the lobby. That artwork will cost an extra €12,000. Refer back to that agreement.

HOMEWORK

Writing 1

Your company supplies meat products to local restaurants. One of your customers, Hurley’s Steakhouse, has asked for deliveries to be made “after hours.” Write an e-mail to the owner of Hurley’s, Mark Steinberg, to confirm that the customer wants deliveries to be made after the restaurant closes at 10:00 P.M.

Writing 2

You are a salesperson for a company that creates brochures for the hotel industry. You have received an e-mail from a client summarizing your agreement to provide a brochure design. The summary is correct except for one detail: the client agreed to pay an extra $4,500 for new photographs of the hotel rooms. Write a reply to the hotel manager, Sheena Makkiren, referring back to your agreement.
