Greg	Lincoln Airways, customer service department, Greg speaking. How may I help you?
Ann	Hello, my name's Ann Boyle.
	I'm calling about an issue with a ticket reservation.
	I booked the ticket on your Web site yesterday,
	but I never received a confirmation e-mail.
	I'm concerned that the transaction hasn't been processed properly.
	The booking number is 2475289.
Greg	All right, Ms. Boyle.
	Let me clarify the situation and get back to you as soon as I figure out what happened.
	How can I get in touch with you this afternoon?
Ann	I'm at work at the moment, so let me give you my office number.
	It's 555-6403, extension 214.
Greg	So that's 555-6403, extension 214. Is that right?
Ann	Yes, that's correct.
	Unless something comes up,
	you can reach me at that number until five o'clock today.

Level IV  BUSINESS DAY-9

Practice speaking using the following scenarios. EXERCISE 3それぞれの状況に沿って、スピーキングを練習しましょう! Talk 1 Your manager (your teacher) is out of the office today. She calls you to see if a client has contacted you about a proposal you submitted. You have not heard from the client yet. Your manager wants you to let her know as soon as you hear anything. Ask your manager how you can reach her. Talk 2 You cannot find a folder with some work documents in it. You think you may have left the folder at the restaurant where you had lunch. You call the restaurant, and the staff member (your teacher) says she will look for it. She asks for your phone number so she can call you back. Relay your office phone number (use your actual phone number) to the staff member. Talk 3 You want to obtain a permit from the city government. You call the city, but it is not the right department for the permit you need. The official you are speaking to (your teacher) gives you the number of the correct department. Confirm the number by repeating it.
